I saw the Daily News pieces too. The cartoon is priceless.

If you want to come over for New Year's, we start about 9. If coming, come hungry. Hope you see you, but I understand if this isn't going to work for you.

he responded to my late email of last evening alerting him we may have unintentionally overstated the amt of snow clearing and modified his initial submission..he's a good guy.

another great piece if you missed it ---today's daily news editorial cartoon. fantastic. marty is beside himself on this one. i heard from editorial staff who will continue beating the drum. they are absolutely flabbergasted and outraged js-k made no effort what so ever to respond to their devastating bike editorial of a few weeks ago.. from my perspective as a govt official, ive never seen that either.

all in all things are looking up.

I [REDACTED]: Look how well he deals with the "Did they or didn't they" issue of clearing the PPW lane. Another great article for our side. I think we're ahead this week, at least.
